

Charles Howard Calloway

September 4, 1941 - June 21, 2018

Charles Howard Calloway, Jr., age 76, passed way on Thursday, June 21, 2018, at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville. He was born on September 4, 1941, in Melbourne, Florida. He is preceded in death by his brother, Robbie Calloway. Charles served in the United States Marine Corp for four years. He was an animal lover and was known for his ability to keep the environment around him lighthearted. He was also known for his extravagant holiday decorations for Christmas and Halloween because he said that, "I love to see the faces of people light up with joy, and fear!" He is survived by his loving wife of forty-two years, Pamela (Willis) Calloway; his four children, Chad Tull, Candice Duran, Nicole Wood, and Brandi Humphries; and his fourteen grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Lester C. Howick Animal Shelter at <https://www.co.washington.ar.us/government/departments-a-e/animal-shelter>.

“ My visits with Mr. Calloway were always delightful. He loved to share stories about his hobbies, and we would talk about how much NWA has changed. You will be missed Mr. Calloway.

“ I met Mr. Calloway almost 2 years ago when we moved to NWA. I immediately was at ease and really enjoyed our conversation. This man led a full life with many adventures! Very sad to hear of your passing. I know given the time you had many more stories to share. Rest in Peace Mr. Calloway, you will be missed!
