“ We met quite by accident. She showed us a property for sale we were interested in and we became fast friends. We met for lunch a few times but life always seemed to get in the way. We had so much in common, the love for our families, Colorado and we are close in age. I am shocked and saddened by her passing. She is a very special person who showed love and kindness in all of her actions. My heartfelt sympathy to the family and all of her other friends.
